

Terms & Conditions: Abstract Submission TERRA 2023

1st European Conference on TEaching and Research in Sustainable Resource ExtrAction (TERRA)

Boppard, Germany, 6-8 September 2023

By submitting your abstract to the 1st European Conference on TEaching and Research in Sustainable Resource ExtrAction (TERRA), you agree to the following Terms and Conditions:

- Only one abstract may be submitted per participant/author
- The author commits himself/herself to present the paper at the conference, if the abstract will be selected for presentation
- The author has noted the following key dates:
 - Registration and abstract submission deadline: 1 April 2023
 - Deadline to pay registration fees: 1 April 2023
 - Notification about the acceptance of abstracts: 1 May 2023
- Abstracts of any authors, who fail to register and pay by 1 April 2023, will be withdrawn from the internal selection procedure, and will therefore not be considered as presenters at the conference
- The author ensures that all necessary approvals for the abstract and the presentation have been granted
- The abstract and the presentation do not violate the copyright of any other third party
- Submitted abstracts have not been previously published
- The Institute of Mineral Resources Engineering of RWTH Aachen University will edit accepted abstracts and will receive the copyright of the accepted abstracts
- Publication of the accepted abstracts will be organised by the Institute of Mineral Resources Engineering of RWTH Aachen University and the abstract booklet will be made available to conference participants